Day 3: Kunming – Shilin (Stone Forest) – Jiuxiang Caverns – Kunming

Kunming, called the "Spring City" or the "City of Eternal Spring" because its weather is mild throughout the year, is the capital of Yunnan Province. Among its approximately 7 million inhabitants, there are members of many ethnic groups: the majority Han, as well as numerous minority groups like the Bai, Ni, Dai, Hani, and Naxi. First you will visit a place famous for its natural scenery: the Shilin ("Stone Forest") Scenic Area, which takes its name from the limestone pillars that rise like giant trees over the landscape, creating a truly strange and unique sight. The tallest of these pillars rises to a height of 30 meters. You can stroll along footpaths through the "forest" and enjoy the famous sights in the area, which include Lion Pavilion, Sword Peak Pond, Lotus Peak, and Sea of Romance. From Shilin you will proceed to Jiuxiang, a "key national scenic area" whose main feature is a cluster of limestone caverns. Among other striking sights, the caves feature a spectacular waterfall that produces a sound like thunder. After touring the caves, you will return to Kunming for a dinner of "mushroom hot pot," a famous local dish.

You will visit Erhai Park on the south side of the lake to admire the view. We have also arranged for you to stop in Xizhou, a lakeside town famous for its architecture, to tour the traditional family estate of the Yan clan and see a “Three Courses of Tea” song and dance show, traditionally performed by the Bai ethnic group as a way of welcoming guests. Its main peak has a height of 5,596 meters above sea level and is snow-capped throughout the year. Your trip to the mountain will take you across Dry Sea Meadow, a vast open part of Lijiang Valley, to reach the best position from which to admire its peaks. Then you will take a gondola up the mountain and walk through an unspoiled forest for ten minutes or so. Suddenly a broad, beautiful field will appear before you: Cloud Fir Meadow. After taking time to stroll along the path and absorb the magnificence of the scene before and around you, you will head back down the mountain and stop to admire the falls at White Water River, where you can get up close and personal with a group of trained yaks. Then you will visit Jade Water Village, whose beauty people have described by saying that the pure “jade water” of its pools and streams extends all the way up to the top of the mountain. The Naxi people, whose ancestral homeland is Lijiang, believe the area to have special fēngshuǐ (Chinese geomancy) characteristics. Afterward, you will return to Dayan, which also features a strong Naxi cultural influence, for more relaxed leisure time; one visit is insufficient to fully explore and appreciate this expansive old town area.
